Muslim Cool: Race, Religion, and Hip Hop in the United States

Dr. Su'ad Abdul Khabeer is a scholar-artist-activist who uses anthropology and performance to explore the intersections of race and popular culture. As part of the 50th anniversary celebration of the Africana Studies Program as well as the annual Frederic C. Wood lecture in Religion, Dr. Abdul Khabeer will present material from her latest work in a hybrid lecture and performance format. Her book, Muslim Cool: Race, Religion and Hip Hop in the United States examines how intersecting ideas of Muslimness and Blackness challenge and reproduce the meanings of race in the US. This event is hosted by Religion and Africana Studies and co-sponsored by Anthropology, American Studies, Media Studies and Women's Studies.
